Special Olympics Manitoba is an accredited chapter of the Special Olympics movement in Canada, providing grassroots sport programs and competitive opportunities for individuals living with an intellectual disability. We are a charitable, sport organization that relies on public, corporate and government support to deliver athletic programs in communities across our province.

It is our mission to enrich the lives of Manitobans with intellectual disabilities through sport; with a vision that sport will open hearts and minds towards people with intellectual disabilities and create inclusive communities across Manitoba.

Interested individuals should send a resume by December 31st to Jennifer Campbell at jcampbell@specialolympics.mb.ca.
